

pCODR Patient Advocacy Group Conflict of Interest Declarations

Name of Registered Patient Advocacy Group: Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia Patient Advocacy Group

Name of drug and indication under review:

Obinutuzumab in combination with chlorambucil for previously untreated chronic lymphocytic leukemia where fludarabine-based therapy is considered inappropriate.

Conflict of Interest Declarations

To maintain the objectivity and credibility of the pCODR process, all participants in the pCODR review process must disclose any conflicts of interest. Patient advocacy groups must declare any potential conflicts of interest that may influence or have the appearance of influencing the information submitted. Conflict of interest declaration is requested for transparency – it does not negate or preclude the use of the patient advocacy group input.

Examples of conflicts of interest include, but are not limited to:

- financial support from the pharmaceutical industry e.g., educational or research grants, honoraria, gifts, and salary;
- affiliations or personal or commercial relationships with drug manufacturers or other interest groups.

Generally, the Pharmaceutical Industry cannot provide financial support directly to CLL Patient Advocacy Group, as we are an unincorporated Patient Group. The Pharmaceutical Industry supports us indirectly by providing educational grants to charitable organizations that we in turn work with to provide CLL education sessions for patients and health care professionals. The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of Canada (LLSC) is a charitable organization that works with CLL Patient Advocacy Group. LLSC has accepted educational grants from pharmaceutical industry to host programs in conjunction with CLL PAG.
